

BAILEYS of GLENROWAN

2018 SMALL BATCH SERIES FIANO

Baileys of Glenrowan is one of the pioneers of winemaking in North-East Victoria, producing its first vintage in 1870. Since this time, Glenrowan has become a world-renowned winemaking region. Baileys of Glenrowan continues to be recognised as an acclaimed producer of full-flavoured red and luscious fortified wines.

Our Small Batch Series is crafted as the best expression of the unique landscape and climate of our Bundarra vineyard, planted over ancient red granite soils. These wines are produced organically to showcase the diversity of varieties in the region. Fiano, originally from Southern Italy, is perfectly suited to our warm continental conditions which demonstrates the delicious characteristics this white wine is famous for.

Winemaker's Note	Pale straw in colour with lifted orange blossom and white flower aromatics. The palate is layered and textured with hints of almond, white peach and a clean crisp finish, meshed with a little tannin. Can be cellared for up to two years, but ideally enjoyed fresh.
Vintage	An even growing season, without any heat spikes, produced well balanced vines which allowed the grapes to ripen slowly and naturally on the vines and be harvested at peak timing.
Vineyards	Baileys Bundarra Organic Vineyard planted on the slopes of the Warby range.
Winemaking &amp; Barrel Ageing	Handpicked and gently air bag pressed into older 100% seasoned French oak barriques and hogs head to complete fermentation and then left to rest on its lees, enhancing texture and building complexity.
Enjoy	Serve chilled. Beautifully accompanies rich seafood dishes such as a decadent bouillabaisse or pan seared barramundi.
Analysis	Alc/Vol 14.0%	TA 6.7g/L	pH 3.20	RS 3.0g/L*
