

BAILEYS of GLENROWAN

2018 SMALL BATCH SERIES NERO D'AVOLA

Baileys of Glenrowan is one of the pioneers of winemaking in North-East Victoria, producing its first vintage in 1870. Since this time, Glenrowan has become a world-renowned winemaking region. Baileys of Glenrowan continues to be recognised as an acclaimed producer of full-flavoured red and luscious fortified wines.

Our Small Batch Series is crafted as the best expression of the unique landscape and climate of our Bundarra vineyard, planted over ancient red granite soils. These wines are produced organically to showcase the diversity of varietals in the region. Nero d'Avola, a high quality variety from Southern Italy, stands out as a perfect match for our Glenrowan conditions, producing a rich and complex wine.

Winemaker's Note

Bright crimson colour with lifted floral aromas immediately awaken the senses. The palate exhibits layers of cherries overlain with blue fruits and spice, rounded by soft supple tannins and a slightly savoury finish. Can be cellared for up to two years, but best enjoyed whilst young.

Vintage

An even growing season without any heat spikes produced well balanced vines which allowed the grapes to ripen slowly and naturally on the vines and be harvested at peak timing.

Vineyards

Baileys Bundarra Organic Vineyard planted on the slopes of the Warby range.

Winemaking & Barrel Ageing

Treated softly in the winery with no crushing, to retain flavour and brightness. Gently pressed into older French oak to build complexity for maturation, and some in tank to maximise juicy freshness.

Enjoy

Enjoyed at room temperature or try chilling lightly just before serving. Beautifully accompanies game meats like duck or even succulent pork dishes.
